ENTRY FEES

Steers	$20.00
Beef Heifer	$12.00
Market Lambs	$15.00
Market Swine	$15.00
Breeding Gilts	$10.00
Broilers	$10.00/pen
Rabbits	$7.00/head
Pen of Fryers	$10.00/pen
Boer Goats	$10.00
Meat Goats	$15.00

*Entry fees are due to the superintendent by Dec. 15th.

Lambs, Swine, Goats, and Broilers that make sale will be posted at 12:00 p.m. Saturday. This list will not be complete because some exhibitors will be showing both lambs or pigs and steers and will not know which animal will be sold until after the steer show. Therefore, some lower placing animals could move up into the sale slots right after the steer show. So, be sure and check final listing to be posted prior to sale.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

GENERAL RULES

1. Entrants must be at least 8 years of age or in the 2nd grade or no more than 19 on August 31 of the coming year. They must be enrolled in public or private elementary or secondary schools in Callahan County or surrounding counties at the time of the County Livestock Show. Entrants must be members in good standing of local FFA Chapter or Callahan County 4-H Clubs. Projects must be fed under the supervision of Vo-Ag Instructors or Callahan County Extension Agent.
2. Exhibitors must be a dues paying member of FFA or 4H on or before November 1 of the school year in which they are showing.
3. Entry must be the bonafide property of the exhibitor and will be ineligible if purchased through a sale of another show.
4. Rules and regulations of the Texas Animal Health Commission must be adhered to by exhibitors. Sick or diseased animals will not be accepted in the show.
5. General Superintendent or superintendents of each department will have the right to reject an animal unfit for showing.
6. For any animal to be eligible to show in the Callahan County Show, the animal(s) must meet the following criteria:
  - *Be ordered and purchased through a Callahan County Livestock Show Official (broilers).
  - *Be approved by a Callahan County AST/CEA (rabbits)
  - *Be State or county validated at the pre-set Callahan County Livestock Show validation date or make-up date for each specific species, goats, lambs, pigs, steers and heifers.
  - *Any animal not meeting the above criteria will not be allowed to show at the Callahan Livestock Show.
7. All projects, with the exception of broilers, swine, goats and lambs, must be certified prior to November 1 of each year through the local Vo-Ag Instructors or County Extension Agent to be eligible to show. Broilers, swine, and rabbits must be certified by December 10 of each year.
8. Animals will remain on premise after weighting in unless dismissed by department superintendent. All pens and stalls are on a first come first serve basis. No locking gates on any pens at any time. The pens will be marked with number of pigs per pen & enforced by superintendent.
9. Lambs, steer, goats, and hogs will be classified by a classifier as determined by show management. All decisions on class or breed made by the classifier will be done so before the animal leaves the classifying pen/area. Classifier's decision is FINAL. Classifier will be selected by committee
10. Animals classified out because of breed characteristics, may be moved to class deemed appropriate by judge or classifier. The judge and/or classifier's decision will be FINAL. No one is allowed in Classifier's ring except Classifier, Superintendents, Bookkeeper and Student.

11. Protest of any nature shall be put in writing accompanied by a $25.00 fee. Protest to be decided by a committee consisting of advisors & the board excluding the conflicting advisor. The $25.00 fee will be returned if protest is upheld.
12. Lamb, steer, goat, and hog exhibitors will be allowed to show up to three (3) animals per class.
13. An exhibitor may receive as many showmanship awards as he or she is awarded. Showmanship will be immediately before the lamb, goat, hog and cattle show. This will allow the judge to give good or bad points to exhibitors. Exhibitor must show their own animal in the showmanship class. Showmanship will be divided into 2 classes; juniors will be 2nd-8th grade & seniors will be 9th-12th grade. No calf/cow pairs in the ring during showmanship.
14. Each breed division in market classes (barrows, lambs, goats, and steers) will be divided into weight groups as equally as possible by numbers; 1 class if 4 or less , 2 classes if 5-12, 3 classes if 13-33, 4 classes if 34-44, 5 classes if 45-55, and 6 classes if 56 or more. There will be no more than 7 steers per class. Superintendents and advisors are allowed to modify class breaks and or numbers of classes.
15. No reweigh permitted on animals who are under minimum or over maximum.
16. No washing of any animal on showgrounds except in designated areas.
17. Number of eligible sale animals will be presented by the directors prior to the sale.
18. All exhibitors will be under the control and direction of the management, but the Association will in no case be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage which may occur. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to, or occasioned by, or as rising from, any animal or article exhibited by him, and for its description as given in the catalog. He shall indemnify the Association against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto, as well as damage or injury to any other person or property caused by the exhibitor or any of the animals exhibited by him, or arising out of, or in any way connected with such exhibitions or any of the animals so exhibited.
19. The Callahan County Junior Livestock Show Association will abide by state guidelines on no pass/no play on eligibility of participants in the annual show. An ineligible student's project may not be shown by another family member or other eligible junior exhibitors
20. Exhibitor must be present to show animal in the Callahan County Livestock Show. Exhibitors not present must have prior approval by a committee consisting of advisors, county agent excluding conflicting advisors or county agent. Other UIL or school activities below the state level will not be an excused absence.
21. No animal can move from one class to the other after the show starts.
22. Each exhibitor can only show in one county show.

23. The exhibitor at validation must declare which organization or chapter under which they will be showing at the county show and must abide by and participate in that chapter organization and sales committee fund raisers or functions to be eligible to sale or be placed on the bonus list.
24. All county animals will be validated on the same dates and time as state-validated animals. NO late validation.
25. All county sheep and goat entries must be ear tagged. Breeding goats can use their breeding tag or tattoo but must be validated on that date.
26. Shavings are the only bedding allowed in the barn.
27. No heat lamps to be used in the Show Barn for any animal.
28. There will be no saving of swine pens. It will be first come first serve, when animals are unloaded. The pig pens will be marked as to the number of pig per pen & enforced by the swine superintendent.
29. No dogs allowed in the barn unless they are service dogs.
30. If your animal is not in the staging area by the 3rd call, you will not be able to show.
31. Pre-entries need to be turned in with entry form and fees to the superintendent by the 3rd Friday in December. All entries after the deadline are double the fees. Any entries at the show must be paid by credit card or Venmo. Pen assignments are NOT based on the number of entries per exhibitor but on the actual number of animals in the barn per exhibitor. Therefore, entering extra animals does not mean extra pens.
32. If pre-entries are less than 10 in a breeding show, animals will be broken by weight & not by birth date or breeds with superintendent's discretion to break classes.
33. No awards can be awarded or handed out at the CCJLS unless voted & approved by the board.

PREMIUM AUCTION SALE RULES

The Callahan County Junior Livestock Show Sale is a premium only sale. Exhibitors will retain ownership of the animal and will be eligible to show at a later date.

1. An exhibitor will be allowed to sell one eligible animal.
2. Number of animals to be sold will be set by directors each year prior to the sale.
3. Animals may move up in class but not from one class to another. If there are not 4 animals eligible for sale in class, only animals eligible in that class will be sold. Animals from other classes will not be used to make up the difference.
4. Exhibitor must be present to sell animal in premium sale. Exhibitor not present must have approval of a committee consisting of advisors and Board excluding conflicting advisors in order for the exhibitor to sell.
5. Exhibitors are responsible for animals until they are loaded into designated areas as specified by superintendent.
6. Exhibitors will have 30 minutes after the judge is completed on their division to decide which animal will sell in the premium sale.
7. In the event of the livestock show being rescheduled to a different time, we will allow an exhibitor who cannot be present on Saturday for the premium sale due to a conflict of scheduling to have another exhibitor take their animal through the premium sale. The exhibitor must inform officials in writing of his/her scheduling conflict within 72 hours of notification of the livestock show being rescheduled.
8. Any corrections to the sale list must be done no later than 30 minutes after the steer show.
9. Breeding species (Heifers, Does, Rabbits & Gilts) will have the opportunity to be added to the sale list for bonuses ONLY. The exhibitor will not walk through the sale but will be eligible for organizations or individuals to bonus the exhibitor.
10. If the exhibitor makes the sale with a market animal, they are ineligible to make the bonus list with their breeding animals.

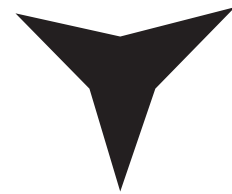

11. Breeding animals can only make the bonus list one time in that animal's show career.
12. No animals will be taken through the sale.
